Natural Weight Management

Natural weight management program is design to lose weight without temporarily restriction of your diet or using medications.

Based on rich a history of Traditional Chinese Medicine, we believe that if the body maintains healthy metabolic rates, it will take off extra pounds and keep the body healthy and fit. Many facts may affect one's metabolism, with the unhappy results of being overweight or, worse, obesity.

We use Traditional Chinese Medicine to diagnoses on each patient's particular cause of the problem. Therapy is prescribed to treat the root of the "disease". Since acupuncture and herbs are natural treatments, they eliminates the various side effects caused by drugs or starvation diets, both of which can seriously harm one's health.

Speed up your metabolic rate and keep extra weight off permanently.

Our Unique Program

Initial Evaluation

We review your medical history, and give you a physical examination, compete lab laboratory test and body fat percentage analysis to determine the cause of weight gain and then determine a customized treatment plan. Thereafter to establish individualized treatment plan. We re-evaluation your condition after the first course of treatment.

Acupuncture

We insert needles at specific points to cause body to release endorphin and other neuron transmitters to speed metabolic rates. This also release water retention and increase fat acid transformation and reduce appetite.

Herbal Formulas

We use a variety herbal formulas specifically designed to relieve stress, speed metabolic rate and reduce weight.

Diet Plan

Based on each patient's condition, we provide a specific dietary recommendation to assist you in creating a healthy diet and reaching an optimum calories intake level. This helps maintain the healthy weight.

Exercises

We also suggest an exercise plan that helps you reach you optimum weight goals.
